Stepped is so far that, should I wade no more,
Returning were as tedious as go over;
Strang things I have in head, that will to hand
Which must be acted ere they may be scanned
- (b) Thou sure and firm-set earth.
Hear not my steps, which way they walk, for fear
Thy very stones prate of my where about,
And take the present horror from the time,
Which now suits with it, whiles I threats, he lives;
Words to the heat of deeds too cold breath give.
